

Electronics Recycling Options in Chelan County

Free Electronics Recycling Program

The E-Cycle program, started in 2009, allows for free electronics recycling for small businesses, households, schools, small governments, special purpose districts and nonprofit organizations with 10 or fewer electronic items. This program accepts computers, monitors, laptop computers, e-readers, portable DVD players and TVs for recycling. More information at: E-Cycle Washington

The following items are NOT accepted in the E-Cycle program: keyboards, mice and printers, cell phones, fax machines, standard DVD players, and iPods.

Locations in Chelan County include:

- Salvation Army Store of Wenatchee

1501A North Miller St.-behind Denny's Restaurant

Wenatchee, WA 662-5103

Open 9:00am to 3:00pm; Monday through Saturday

- City of Chelan Recycle Center

23233 Highway 97A

Chelan, WA 682-4037

Office Depot in Wenatchee charges a fee for recycling computers and accepts keyboards, printers and fax machines. Print cartridges can be redeemed at Office Depot for a $2 merchandise credit on store rewards cards.

Visit Ecology's web site at 1800recycle.wa.gov for more options.