Chelan County Local Voters' Pamphlet packet

Information for pro and con committees

2025 election cycle

Who can participate?

Committees formally appointed by a jurisdiction proposing a ballot measure and participating in the local voters' pamphlet. There is a limit of three members per committee but committees may seek advice of any person or persons.

If you would like to serve on a committee, contact the jurisdiction proposing the measure.

If the jurisdiction fails to make committee appointments by the deadline, Chelan County Auditor has the authority to make such appointments.

The Auditor will use the following criteria when making appointments:

- Be residents of and registered voters in the jurisdiction proposing the ballot measure within Chelan County.
- Have demonstrated ability to communicate rapidly by email.
- Shall agree to work collaboratively with co-committee members.

Pro and con committee statements.

Arguments in favor of or in opposition to any ballot measure shall be filed in Chelan County Elections no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day of the deadline.

Length and other specifications

Limitations on the length of committee arguments are based upon the space available within the pamphlet.

- Pro/con statements: 200 words/4 paragraphs
- Rebuttal statements: 75 words/2 paragraphs
- Space is limited, so formatting is very important. Format your statement as an essay; text must be written in paragraphs. Tables, lists and bullets are not allowed and will be changed

- to a block paragraph with a semicolon to separate each item.
- Only use italics to emphasize specific words or statements. Bold, underline and all caps is not allowed. Words submitted with prohibited formatting will be changed to italics.

In the event of any question regarding length, the Chelan County Auditor's decision shall be final.

Rebuttal statements.

The day after the deadline to submit pro and con statements, Chelan County Elections will email the opposing committee's statement to all committee members.

Rebuttal statements are not required; however, it gives each committee an opportunity to write a few more words supporting their point of view.

Committee contact information.

Only the names of the committee members (as submitted by the jurisdiction) are included in the pamphlet. Additionally, a phone number, email or website (as submitted by the committee) can be included. Government web and email addresses, such as those ended in .gov may not be used. This information is in addition to the statement word limits. Committee members' titles will not be included.

Submission of material.

Chelan County Elections prefers to receive statements submitted by email or with a Word document attached. Statements can be submitted one of the following ways:
