2. In an effort to ensure that investigations by the Sheriff or his/her designee are conducted in a manner that is conducive to good order and discipline, the members of the Union shall be entitled to the protection of what shall hereafter be termed as the "Deputy Bill of Rights."
3. Whenever the employer decides to initiate an investigation that may lead to disciplinary action, the employer shall promptly provide the employee notice of the investigation. Such notice will include a description of the general nature of the complaint unless such notice would endanger the investigation.
4. The employee will be informed in writing not less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to conducting an investigatory interview, that the employee is a subject in an inquiry that may lead to disciplinary action. Further, the employee will be informed of the nature of the investigation and provided a summary of the factual allegation(s) sufficient to reasonably apprise the employee of the nature of the charge. Upon request, the employee shall be afforded the opportunity to consult with a Union representative. Up to two (2) Union representatives (which shall include legal counsel for the Union) may be present at the interview and permitted to participate to the extent allowable by law. The interview may not be unduly delayed awaiting an unavailable Union representative when other Union representatives are available.
5. The employee under such investigation shall be informed of the name of the person in charge of the investigation and the name of questioners, and all other persons to be present during the questioning.
6. The questioning shall be conducted during the regular business hours of the Chelan County Sheriff's Office which is 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., unless the seriousness of the investigation requires otherwise. If such questioning occurs during off-duty time of the employee being questioned, the employee shall be compensated for such off-duty time in accordance with regular employer procedures.

7. Any questioning session shall be for a reasonable period, taking into consideration the gravity and complexity of the issue being investigated. Persons being questioned shall be allowed to attend to their own personal physical necessities whenever reasonably possible.
8. The employee will be required to answer any questions involving non-criminal matters under investigation and will be afforded all rights and privileges to which she/he is entitled under the collective bargaining agreement, and Sheriff's Office rules and regulations. Prior to any questioning where the employee is the focus of an administrative investigation, the employee shall be advised of the following:
 - A. You are about to be questioned as part of an administrative investigation being conducted by the Chelan County Sheriff's Office. You are hereby ordered to answer the questions that are put to you that relate to your conduct and/or job performance, and to cooperate with this investigation. You are required to answer questions relating to the performance of your official duties or fitness for duties. Your failure to cooperate with this investigation can be the subject of disciplinary action in and of itself, including dismissal. The statements you make or evidence gained as a result of this required cooperation may be used for administrative purposes but will not be used or introduced into evidence in a criminal proceeding.
9. Employees and investigators shall not be subjected to any offensive language, nor shall investigators make promises or threats as an inducement to answer questions.
10. The employer shall not require employees subject to an ongoing discipline investigation to be subjected to visits by the press or news media, nor shall their home address be given to the press or news media without the employee's express consent.
11. The complete questioning of an employee may be recorded by the employer, the employee, and/or the employee's representative. If an audio recording is made of the questioning, upon request, the employee shall be given a copy of any audio recording in which they participated. Audio recordings will be made if the interviewee consents to such recording, in accordance with state law. As an operation of this agreement, all other participants to the interview will be deemed to have already consented to being recorded. There shall be no "off-the-record" questions.

12. It is the Employer's goal that all interviews and investigations be completed without unreasonable delay. In general, the employer shall provide the employee notice that it contemplates issuing disciplinary action within ninety (90) days after it receives the initial complaint about the employee's actions or inactions unless circumstances exist requiring the investigation to take longer. After ninety (90) days have elapsed from the receipt of the initial complaint, the Employer shall notify the employee and the Union of the following facts: (a) when the employer anticipates completing the investigation; (b) a general description of the investigation's status. Subsequently, if the employer realizes that it will not complete the investigation within the time it has specified, the employer shall notify the employee and the Union of the information required herein.
13. Upon completion of the administrative investigation and the Employer's review of the case, the employee under investigation shall be informed in writing of the results, i.e., whether the complaint was not accepted, exonerated, unfounded, not sustained, sustained or other misconduct found.

5E.2 When the investigation results in departmental charges being filed

1. After the investigation is completed and the findings are that the complaint has been sustained or other misconduct found, the employee will be furnished with a copy of the report(s) of the investigation that will contain all known material facts of the matter. The employee shall be advised of the investigation's findings and any future action to be taken on the incident.

1. When an employee, whether on or off duty, uses lethal force the employee shall not be required to make a written or recorded statement for forty-eight (48) hours after the incident. The employee will be asked, however, to answer questions soliciting information pertaining to officer and/or public safety. Employees involved in the use of lethal force shall be allowed to consult with a Union representative or attorney prior to being required to provide a statement regarding that use of lethal force. The affected employee may waive the requirement to wait forty-eight (48) hours. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed as authority for compelling an officer to prepare a response. Whether the officer is ordered to prepare a response will depend upon the circumstances of the particular situation, including whether the officer is the subject of a criminal investigation. If a deputy is required to surrender his/her duty weapon, the Sheriff's Office shall immediately supply a replacement weapon to the Deputy absent good cause.

5E.4 Personnel Records

1. The personnel file shall be considered the official record of an employee's service. Employees shall be allowed to review or be provided with a copy of all material in their personnel file, upon request, with reasonable copy costs charged to the requesting employee. The employer shall give the employee a copy of discipline-related documents or evaluations that will be placed into his or her personnel file. The employee has a right to attach statements in rebuttal or explanation to those documents. An employee may request to have a written reprimand removed from their file following one (1) year after the incident. Thereafter, the employee may request to have a written reprimand removed from their file following three (3) years after the incident, which shall not be unreasonably denied. Any reprimand removed from an employee personnel file may be retained by the County in an appropriate archival or legal file. Once the reprimand is removed it will not be relied on for further disciplinary purposes.
2. Employee personnel files will be maintained as confidential records to the full extent allowed by law. Access to the employee's personnel file will be limited to the employee, his/her representative with written authorization, officials of the County and Sheriff's Office, and other persons or agencies as may be allowed under state law.
3. The employer shall disclose information in personnel files in accordance with state law. Prior to disclosing personnel file documents (other than employment verification information) the Employer will give the affected bargaining unit member notification of the request. If the Employer believes that the document(s) is subject to disclosure, it will notify the employee. The affected bargaining unit member shall have ten (10) working days to provide the Employer any reason for not releasing the requested document(s) and/or to give the employee an opportunity to prevent the release at the expense of the Union or the employee prior to releasing the requested documents. The employee may waive the notice requirement.
4. The Sheriffs' Office shall maintain the personnel file for each bargaining unit member. No secret personnel file will be kept on any bargaining unit member. This does not preclude a supervisor from maintaining notes on a bargaining unit member's job performance or a supervisory working file. For the purposes of this section a "supervisory working file" consists of material relevant to the preparation of the employee's performance evaluation and/or documentation of oral counseling sessions, commendations, training records, or other records related to an employee's performance.

5E.5 Discipline

1. Prior to making a final determination of disciplinary action, a meeting will be conducted between a representative of the Employer and the impacted employee. The Employer will notify the employee in writing of the contemplated discipline and provide the employee with a copy of the completed investigative report.
2. The employee will have a minimum of three (3) working days to review the case. This period may be extended if the employee has legitimate justification for an extension.
3. A conference meeting shall be conducted following the three (3) working day review period, unless an extension has been granted. The employee will be afforded the opportunity to present any mitigating evidence he/she deems pertinent; the employee may submit the information orally or in writing. The session may be audio-recorded by either party provided all participants the employee concurs consents, in accordance with state law requirements. As an operation of this agreement, all other participants to the interview will be deemed to have already consented to being recorded. Upon request, the employee shall be given a copy of any audio-recording made by the employer. The employee may be represented at the conference by his/her Union representative(s), the total not to exceed two (2) people for the employee.
4. Following a consideration of any additional information provided by the impacted employee, the final determination will be made. The employee will be notified in writing of the final determination and provided with a copy of any additional documents generated through the due process meeting process.

5E.6 BRADY REPORTING

1. The Sheriff's Office has certain responsibilities to identify employees to the Chelan County prosecuting attorney based on Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and its progeny. If such identification takes place in the absence of an investigation during which the employee is given notice and an opportunity to be heard, or in the absence of findings, or prior to completion of such investigation, or if the Sheriff's Office determines the charge is unfounded or the employee is exonerated, the Sheriff's Office shall not use evidence of the Brady identification to the prosecuting attorney in any disciplinary proceedings involving that employee. Furthermore, in such circumstances the Sheriff's Office shall not use the identification as a basis for denial of promotion. This section shall not apply if an investigating body, following an investigation in which the employee is provided with notice and an opportunity to be heard, makes findings that an employee committed conduct that would warrant identification to the prosecuting attorney under the requirements of Brady.

5E.7 Commissioned Deputy Agreement – “Me Too Clause”.

1. In the event the County and the Union enter into an agreement covering the Deputy Sheriff's bargaining unit that modifies the “Employee Bill of Rights” section, such modifications shall automatically be incorporated into, and applied, to this Agreement at the same time as it becomes effective for employees covered by the agreement involving the Deputy Sheriffs.
