Sheriff Brian Burnett is pleased to announce the most recent addition to his Administrative Team. Dave Helvey was hired as the Chief of Patrol for the Chelan County Sheriff's Office, effective August 1st, 2014.

Chief Helvey attended Cashmere Schools, graduating from Cashmere High School. He also attended and graduated from Wenatchee Valley College. He comes to the Chelan County Sheriff's Office after a tenured and successful career at the Douglas County Sheriff's Office. His career at Douglas County included 12 years as the Tactical Team Leader and Team Medic, 13 years as the Detective Sergeant, overseeing all aspects of criminal investigations, including certification as a Computer Forensics Examiner, and 19 years as the Spillman Data Systems Administrator. Prior to his career at Douglas County, he was a volunteer Reserve Officer for the Wenatchee Police Department.

Sheriff Burnett welcomes Chief Dave Helvey, and looks forward to working with him as a longtime member of our community, and an experienced and respected member of the local Law Enforcement Community.
