On Wednesday, September 17 at about 6:15 PM, Chelan County Sheriff's Deputies were investigating a reported Court Order violation in the Leavenworth area. After speaking to the female victim, Deputies attempted to locate the male, identified as 20 year old Cameron Saylor of East Wenatchee. Saylor was reported as driving a charcoal grey, Nissan Altima in the area a short time prior. Deputies located the vehicle a short time later in the Ski Hill, highway 2 area and were able to stop it in the 100 block of West Whitman Street in front of a garage. After verifying the driver was Saylor, they attempted to place him into custody for violating the Court Order, but he refused to exit the vehicle. Deputies attempted to remove him from the vehicle, but he continued to resist arrest and was able to start the car and put it into "drive." The vehicle lurched forward, dragging Deputy David Flick about 10 feet, nearly running him over. The vehicle then crashed into a garage where Deputies removed him while he still continued to resist being taken into custody. Only minor injuries were reported to Mr. Saylor and he was treated at the scene. Deputy Flick was uninjured. Washington State Patrol responded and investigated the collision scene. Damage to the garage was estimated to be under $5,000.

Mr. Saylor was booked for 2 counts of Violation of a Domestic Violence No Contact Order, Giving False Information, Resisting Arrest, Assault 3rd and Malicious Mischief 2nd Degree.
